DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

(e) the invention was described in a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent, or on an international application by another who has fulfilled the requirements of paragraphs (1), (2), and (4) of section 371(c) of this title before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent.

The changes made to 35 U.S.C. 102(e) by the American Inventors Protection Act of 1999 (AIPA) and the Intellectual Property and High Technology Technical Amendments Act of 2002 do not apply when the reference is a U.S. patent resulting directly or indirectly from an international application filed before November 29, 2000. Therefore, the prior art date of the reference is determined under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) prior to the amendment by the AIPA (pre-AIPA 35 U.S.C. 102(e)).

Claims 1-4, 6-9 and 17 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Her et al-6,033,433.

As to claims 1-4, 6-9 and 17, Ehr-'433 (please refer to a portion of Fig. 30 reproduced on next page) discloses a stent having S-shape bridging elements crossing three times at locations B, C, D the midlines AE of V-shapes as recited in the claims.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 10-16 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Fischell et al.-5,697,971 in view of Jang-6,235,053.

As to claims 10-16, Fischell-'971 (Figs. 2-3) discloses a stent 10 having cylindrical tubes having adjacent struts and S-shaped bridging elements substantially as recited in the claims, except for the connecting points of the S-shaped bridging elements located diagonally and bridging element less wider than strut as recited in the claims. However, Jang-'053 (Fig. 1-3, for example) discloses connecting points of the S-shaped bridging elements located diagonally (off-center connection) and S-shaped bridging elements less wider than adjacent struts. It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time of the invention to move the connecting points to the locations as shown in modified Fischell-'971 stent in view of Jang-'053 (please, see Fig. 2 on next page) for this modified configuration provide Fischell-'971's S-shaped bridging elements longer, more flexible and having more stored length for expansion.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments filed 4/25/2008 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

The arguments suggested that the Ehr-'433 does not meet the recitation "a midline parallel to the longitudinal axis of the stent" as now recited in the independent claims.

However, the stent is basically of a cylindrical form, therefore midline AE as shown in above Her-'433's Fig. 10 is indeed parallel to the longitudinal axis of the stent as recited in the claims.

In short, the limitation added to the independent claims does not clearly define the present invention over the Ehr-'433 reference.
